

WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

1. A method for providing reduced interference between S/CDMA channels (chips), comprising;
5 selecting a first sequence of spreader functions for a first channel, and selecting a second sequence of spreader functions for a second channel, wherein said second sequence is non-overlapping with and spaced from first said sequence.